PROFILE SUMMARY

Professional Experience

Julie Kang joined Winick Realty Group where she represents both landlords and tenants throughout Manhattan and the boroughs, following a successful career with Murray Hill Properties. In her 20 years of experience, Julie has been involved in many notable transactions, with reputable retailers and institutional landlords, having built up an extensive portfolio of landlord and tenant representation.

Julie has had family ties to the real estate world for most of her life, which piqued her interest in a brokerage career of her own. Her outstanding client service, client first approach, ability to source and negotiate, and passion for retail, sets Julie apart from others, making her invaluable in her role. In her downtime, Julie is as avid golfer who enjoys traveling and practicing yoga.
